

Geography entertainment

BOARD GAMES

Explore board game recommendations handpicked by Canadian Geographic Education! These games offer uniquely interactive elements, taking you to uncharted territories, challenging your geographical knowledge, and offering a dynamic way to learn and have fun.

Carcassonne

A tile-laying game where you develop the area around Carcassonne, a city in southern France.

Settlers of Catan

A building game set in the mythical land of Catan, where you trade and build towns, cities, and road networks.

7 Wonders

Gather resources to develop routes and help create military supremacy as a leader of one of the great seven cities of the ancient world.

Ticket to Ride

Claim railroad routes as you journey across the United States (or Europe in Ticket to Ride Europe) and connect cities to attempt to build the longest continuous railway and complete your Destination Tickets!

Pandemic

As four diseases have broken out around the world, it's up to you and your team to control the diseases before they spread throughout the world.

Guess in 10

A fun, educational game for kids of all ages. Learn about animals, dinosaurs, countries and more in the most exciting way possible!

Scout it out

A board game packed with maps, facts, flags, and fun! Roll the die to get clues and scout the country out.

Wingspan

You are bird enthusiasts — researchers, bird watchers, ornithologists, and collectors — seeking to discover and attract the best birds to your network of wildlife preserves.

Terra Mystica

A strategy game where you govern one of 14 factions trying to transform the landscape on the game board in your favor in order to build your structures.

Photosynthesis

Players vie for access to the sun as they plant different species of trees in a forest.

Risk

This strategy game of diplomacy, conflict, and conquest is played across a political map of the world.